

CALL FIRE

Step up to an exciting career!

FIRE FIGHTER I

Applications will be accepted each year during a three-month filing period. The filing period will extend from the first of November through the last business day of January. Applications must be filed at each California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection (CAL FIRE) Unit where you wish to be considered for employment. Please review the CAL FIRE Unit Listing on the reverse side of this flyer for locations and to determine the appropriate filing method. (Applications will not be accepted at Sacramento Headquarters, Region Offices, or Conservation Camps.)

As a member of a fire crew, a Fire Fighter I fights wildland, rural, and structural fires and responds to various other emergency situations including medical emergencies; repairs equipment; and is responsible for general station housekeeping.

Fire Fighter I is a seasonal, temporary classification. A Fire Fighter I is usually hired in April, May or June, and the length of employment may be up to nine months, depending on the duration and intensity of the fire season. Being a Fire Fighter I can lead to a permanent career with CAL FIRE.

Employees of this Department have the opportunity to build rewarding careers while performing work that is challenging and exciting. As a member of the CAL FIRE family, you will join the ranks of employees working together to protect the residents, resources, and property of the State of California.
